Recently picked a DCM-260 up off the classifieds for 45.00 with not working AVR-900 (Blown fuse) and a Denon USC-30 5.1 surround speaker system. So far the DCM-260 seems like a quality unit, it has really good sound quality and a very good sound spectrum. Would recommend.

I had the DCM-260 for four months, but am now getting rid of it. The build quality is good, the sound is very good, but the drive mechanism is extremely noisy (as it is on the 360 which I tested). When the music gets soft, what you hear is a buzzing from the player itself, at an annoying frequency.
