Ladder stitch can also be made with more than one bead in each ladder stitch. Some projects, such as brick stitch earrings, may call for a two bead ladder stitch. A two bead ladder stitch follows the same thread path through the beads, but you will use twice as many beads for each step. Making Two

When we knit in the round, we are actually knitting a continuous spiral. The beginning and end of the round don't quite line up, which is why jogs form when we knit patterns with features such as stripes. But by stacking two or more spirals on top of one another, we can create jogless single-row stripes and

TWO CENTER STITCHES. STEPS: 1. Using a sewing machine, sew a line of stitches down the center of the stitches that abut the two center stitches [Figure 1]. I recommend sewing the line twice to really secure the stitches. Work the second line of machine stitching one stitch over from the first line of machine stitching. FIGURE 1. 2.
